Dear Sirs:

I am writing to you in response to your opening position for an Software Engineering Manager. As an accomplished technology leader in Agile Software Development, I would bring a strong dedication to making deadlines and an excellent ability to communicate with customer to your organization.

Over the years, I have worked on multiple technologies and business domains. I am a result oriented and hands on technology leader with a long history of success driving strategy, design, and execution of software engineering applications by securing buy-in from key stakeholders. I have contributed heavily in four different agile transformation initiatives of different scale. Apart from analyzing and addressing different challenges in agile transformation, I contributed to the successful execution by wearing different hats. I have demonstrated my expertise on leading multiple complex initiatives including to build a complete MLOps pipeline with DataRobot PPS (Portable Prediction Server) for custom models.

For operational excellence core competencies, I have a strong ability to drive performance in line with the company strategy, strong leadership and engagement skills, cultural fluency, vision, expertise in continuous improvement, knowledge of process transformation, and risk management.

As a software engineering manager, I am responsible for analyzing client needs and turning those needs into project specifications. My ability to delegate responsibility and effectively present ideas allow me to be very successful in what I do. I have also developed a strong reputation for professionalism that I would bring to your organization.

My very strong dedication to professionalism and my ability to manage multiple project simultaneously successfully in different platforms make me the ideal software development manager candidate for your organization. I would be greatly honored to have the chance to further discuss this position with you. The attached resume provides additional information as to my qualifications and contact information. Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely Yours,

Hoang.M.Nguyen
